To the Attention of

HE Ambassador Mr José de la Gasca, President of the United Nations Scurity Council

Cc: HE Mr António Guterres, Secretary General of the United Nations

And To whom it might concern,

Excellency,

Please see attached the speech made on the 1st of December 2023 by the Provisional Government of the Free Territory of Trieste in the 16th UN Forum on Minority Issues in Geneva. In the speech the Provisional Government has asked for the opportunity of having an Observatory seat in the UN for the Free Territory of Trieste, and the opportunity to have an official document of the Free Territory. These questions were raised the year before, however unfortunately there were no follow up contacts. We hope this time there will be some follow up conversations to start discussing the current situation and the possible solutions; we would kindly welcome this opportunity and we thank you in advance for your time and effort.

We are aware that the Security Council is currently putting effort on several issues that require its immediate attention, due to the gravity of the various situations; for this reason, the Provisional Government of the Free Territory of Trieste has took the initiative to create the document of the Free Territory (attached), that has also been presented in the abovementioned Forum. As anticipated in the session, if there is any issue with it please send us an email with an informed reply within 30 days, so we can understand what the potential issues are and - in case - discuss with you on how to solve them. If we don't receive any answer, we will then consider that you are happy and have no issues with it, that you authorise and approve the attached document for the Free Territory, and that we can then provide it to the population from January 2024.

For information please see in the link below the academic research (peer review) on the current status of the Free Territory of Trieste.

In addition, we also attach the speech made in the 15th UN Forum on Minority Issues in Geneva in December 2022.

Again, thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Vito Potenza

Provisional Government of the Free Territory of Trieste
